

ID	Summary	Pre-conditions	Test data	Steps	Expected results
TC_WidgetInteraction_001	Checks whether the placemark text changes when the button is clicked.	Python 3.x is installed. The Kivy library is installed (version 2.0.0 or higher). There is a widget file.py with the code provided in the test case description. (Optional) The virtual environment is activated.	The test does not use external data	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Open the command prompt (or terminal). 2. Go to the directory where the file is saved widget.py. 3. Activate the virtual environment (if it is used). 4. Launch the Kivy application by running the command: python widget.py 5. Visually check the placemark text in the Kivy app window that opens. 6. Click on 7. Visually check the placemark text after clicking the button. 	After clicking on the "Click me" button, the label text should change from "Start text" to "Text changed!". The app should not hang and should not give errors.